

armagh

georgian day

Saturday 28 November

Market Square, from 10.00am

Armagh City is hosting its annual Georgian Day which promises to be the most unique and exciting day of the Christmas calendar in the region.

Georgian Day in Armagh City sees market stalls offering stunning crafts and food to excite the Christmas shopper seeking that special gift. The scent of warm mince pies and mulled wine combined with the sound of local bands ensures a unique atmosphere that all the family can enjoy. Horse and Carriage rides are available around The Mall, tickets are available from the Tourist Information Centre.

10.00am - 5.00pm

Georgian Characters - The local gentry and their servants will be promenading on the streets of Armagh. Should you meet one, by all means talk to them and learn a little about the etiquette of Georgian society and the customs of Christmas.

12.00pm - 4.45pm

Children's Games and Street Theatre - Watch local School Children playing games from the Georgian era. Witness the young ruffians as they get up to mischief, maybe even pick a pocket, and beg for money.

12.00pm - 3.00pm

Georgian Toy Workshop - Drop into our toy workshop and make your own Georgian toy.

4.45pm

Christmas Carols are sung by Armagh City Choir and local school children in Market Square. Then there will be Children's lantern procession to the tree-lined Mall.

5.15pm

Carols, Music, Georgian Characters, Mince pieces, Mulled Wine, Pig on a Spit.

5.30pm

Santa arrives to meet the children and distributes goodies.

6.10pm

Beautiful Fireworks Finale
